After a break for lunch we'll visit the Schonbrunn Palace, the exquisite summer residence of the Hapsburgs, where we'll enjoy a guided tour of the interior and have time to stroll the gardens before heading back into the city. Dinner this evening will be at the Medl Bräu brewery/restaurant. The founder's story alone is worth price of admission! (B, D)

Wednesday, June 21st
We begin the day with a visit to the Museum of Military History, tracing the history of the Habsburg Monarchy from the end of the 16th century to the end of the monarchy in 1918. The Sarajevo Room will give us an insight into the beginnings of the "Great War." This afternoon is free for personal exploration – perhaps a visit to the Secession Museum. The Wiener Secession; also known as the Union of Austrian Artists, or Vereinigung Bildender Künstler Österreichs, was formed in 1897 by a group of Austrian artists who had resigned from the Association of Austrian Artists, housed in the Vienna Künstlerhaus. This movement included painters, sculptors, and architects, and the first president of the Secession was Gustav Klimt. Dinner this evening will be at the Salm Bräu restaurant and brewery. (B, D)

Heading west from Vienna we make a stop at the spa town of Bad Ischl, where we will visit the Kaiservilla. In 1854, the Emperor Franz Joseph's mother, the Archduchess Sophie, gave him the Kaiservilla (Imperial Villa) as a wedding present. The villa became the imperial family's summer residence. After lunch (included), we continue to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Hallstatt, a center of the salt-mining industry. Dinner is included at the hotel this evening. (B, L, D)

This afternoon we cross the border into Slovenia and continue to our hotel in the town of Bled, where dinner awaits us. (B, L, D)

Sunday, June 25th
This morning we take an excursion through the Slovenian mountains to the town of Kobarid (known as Caporetto in Italian), site of a major battle in 1917. Caporetto marked the first occasion on which the Germans had determined to provide assistance to their Austro-Hungarian allies on the Italian front. A local guide will show us the Kobarid Museum and take us on the historical trail that follows the Italian "third line of defence." The trail leads us through trenches, forts and buildings intended for the defence of the passage across the Soča River and of the roads on the right bank of the river. On our return to Lake Bled, we'll stop and take a ride on the summer toboggan – a gravity roller coaster leading down to the lake and then return to our hotel. The evening is free in Bled to sample a local restaurant. (B)

You may wish to explore the Ile de la Cite, the beautiful island that houses Notre Dame, explore the narrow, winding walking streets in the vicinity, or stroll onto the Isle St. Louis where posh shops line the central street of this tiny jewel (home to the irresistible ice cream at Bertillon!). Check out the Musée d'Orsay, the medieval Cluny, or Rodin's museum. From superb museums to upscale shopping to café sampling, your day in Paris will fly by. We'll gather again this evening for a ride aboard a Bateaux Mouches and enjoy the illuminated monuments of Paris viewed from the river. (B)
