

NORMANDY, BRITTANY, AND THE LOIRE

ADVENTURES IN NORTHWEST FRANCE

SEPTEMBER 2ND - 11TH 2021

The rolling beaches and apple orchards of Normandy, and the lush beauty of château country, present an ever-changing panorama which unfolds before us as we travel through some of the loveliest regions of northwest France.

Bypassing Paris, we'll rest up from the overnight flight in a château surrounded by beautiful parkland just to the north of the city. From here, we'll spend a day with the Impressionists - we'll visit Monet's Giverny, lunch at the riverside restaurant made famous by Renoir, and tour the local Museum of Impressionism. Moving on into Normandy, we'll explore the D-Day Beaches and view the extraordinary tapestry at Bayeux. A brief detour into Brittany allows us to marvel at magnificent Mont St. Michel, one of the wonders of the western world.

MONT SAINT-MICHEL

Continuing on to the Loire Valley, we'll sample a selection of stunning medieval and Renaissance châteaux, scattered around the countryside. From the romance of Chenonceau arching across the Cher River, to the staggering grandeur of Chambord, a Renaissance masterpiece, all set in the staggering beauty of the "Garden of France" – the Loire Valley. You will begin to understand why this region became the playground of the kings of France.

THE CHÂTEAU DE CHENONCEAU

We end our tour at the epitome of luxurious opulence – Versailles. This fall join Discover Europe on a truly memorable adventure in northwest France.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2ND - Departure from your chosen US gateway city. OVERNIGHT: PLANE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3RD - Your arrival at Paris, Charles de Gaulle Airport, will be met for the transfer to our country hotel set in the “Parc Naturel Régional de Vexin Français,” just north of the city. After checking in, there will be time to unpack, relax and begin enjoying your surroundings. We’ll gather this evening for a welcome dinner. (D) OVERNIGHT: VEXIN

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 4TH - It’s a short drive this morning from our hotel to Giverny, where we’ll experience Monet’s garden paradise - his home for 43 years. Water gardens, bridges, roses—all create breathtakingly gorgeous tableaux recognizable in some of the most famous paintings in the world. After time to visit the gardens and house, we follow the course of the river Seine southeast to the Île des Impressionnistes in Chatou. We’ll have a late lunch in the very restaurant (La Maison Fournaise) used in Renoir’s famous painting Déjeuner des Canotiers (Luncheon of the Boating Party). Our final stop of the day is at the Château d’Auvers-sur-Oise, where we’ll visit the fabulous “Impressionist Vision” exhibition – an immersive, sensory experience that plunges the visitor into the world of impressionist painting. We’ll return to our hotel for a free evening. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: VEXIN

GIVERNY GARDENS

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5TH - Driving through the heart of Normandy, we’ll stop first in Lisieux, the capital of the Calvados region. We’ll stop and marvel at the immense Basilica of Saint Thérèse, a major pilgrimage site of the 20th century and only finished in 1951. We continue to Bayeux, where we’ll check in to our hotel and have time for lunch. After lunch we meet up to view the extraordinary 231-foot-long Bayeux tapestry dating from 1077 and commemorating the events leading up to the Battle of Hastings. The rest of the afternoon is free to explore this delightful town before we meet again for dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: BAYEUX

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH - This morning we drive to visit the D-Day Beaches at Normandy, where the deadliest fighting and largest amphibious assault in WWII began on June 6, 1944. We’ll begin at the Ranger’s Memorial at Pointe de Hoc and then visit the Normandy American Cemetery where seemingly endless rows of white crosses stretch across the cliff top overlooking Omaha beach. Next stop will be the nearby Overlord Museum. We’ll break for lunch in the town of Arromanches before visiting the renowned 360° Cinema. Set on a hill with the best view of the surrounding beaches, the 360° Cinema shows archival footage of the actual D-Day landings. The evening is free to sample a local restaurant when we return to our hotel. (B) OVERNIGHT: BAYEUX

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7TH - Our morning will be spent at nearby Mont St. Michel, the astonishing 11th-century abbey perched on a 264-foot-high rock formation. During the highest tides, the island is surrounded by water, which can rush in at incredible speeds. During low tide, the flats provide food for the world’s only herd of salt-water-plant-eating sheep. We’ll explore the island, abbey, main streets and shops, and have time for lunch before continuing on to the Loire Valley, where we’ll check in to our hotel in Amboise with time to freshen up and relax before dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: AMBOISE

OMAHA BEACH

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8TH - With its delicate light and mild climate, the Loire Valley is often considered the most quintessentially French of all regions. Medieval and Renaissance châteaux are scattered across the countryside, and we begin our day with a visit to the jewel of Amboise, the 15th-century Chapelle St. Hubert, that allegedly contains the tomb where Leonardo da Vinci is buried. From here, we’ll tour the nearby Château du Clos Lucé, where Leonardo lived for the last three years of his life. The rest of the day is free to sit back and enjoy this charming town on the banks of the Loire. (B) OVERNIGHT: AMBOISE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH - This morning, we’ll visit the Château de Chenonceau, arguably the most romantic chateau in France. Built by women for women, this gem of Renaissance architecture spans the Cher River on a series of graceful arches. In the afternoon, we visit the largest and most dramatic of the Loire châteaux, Chambord is a Renaissance masterpiece on a grand scale—440 rooms, a fireplace for every day of the year, intertwined staircases, and a project that demanded the labor of almost 2,000 workmen. Time permitting, we’ll return to our hotel via the exceptionally pretty town of Blois, and have a chance to wander its steeply winding streets lined with half-timbered medieval buildings. We return to our hotel in Amboise and enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: AMBOISE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10TH - Heading back towards Paris, we’ll stop first for the ultimate Gothic experience—Chartres Cathedral. Here, the transcendent beauty of medieval stained glass combines with soaring archways to create one of the great mystical experiences of the middle ages. We’ll arrive at our hotel in Versailles in time to visit the palace before we gather for a farewell dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: VERSAILLES

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH - Morning transport to Charles de Gaulle Airport for returning flights to the U.S. (B) OVERNIGHT: HOME
